

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, First Sergeant John H. Ehrisman's dedication to service has made him a valuable asset to this state and country; and,

Whereas, We have very few occasions to recognize the patriotic individuals for their service to this state and country; and,

Whereas, First Sergeant Ehrisman devoted more than 29 years of his life to the service of this state and country as a Marine and an Engineer, including service in Iraq in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom; as well as service in Wagner, Winner, Platte and Parkston, South Dakota; and training in England and Panama; and,

Whereas, His loyalty and leadership have made him a cornerstone in the Armed Forces of this country; and,

Whereas, First Sergeant Ehrisman continues to give of himself; and,

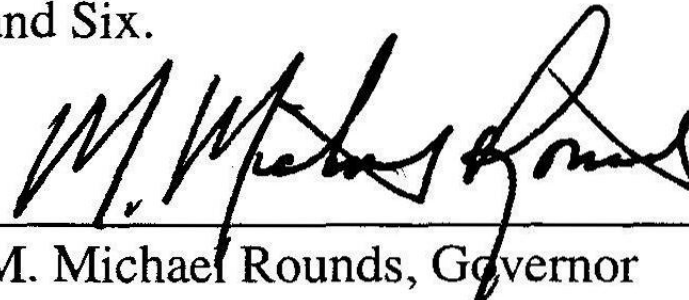

Whereas, It is fitting and proper as Governor to commend First Sergeant John H. Ehrisman for more than 29 years of dedicated and outstanding service to this state and country:

Now, Therefore, I, M. Michael Rounds, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 6, 2006, as in South Dakota, and I join with his family and friends in wishing him well in his retirement and thanking him for his service to the state of South Dakota and to the United States.

FIRST SERGEANT JOHN H. EHRISSMAN DAY

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Third Day of May in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Six.

M. Michael Rounds, Governor

Attest:

Chris Nelson, Secretary of State
